Under The guidance of Prof. dr. H Faisal Santiago, SH.MM. as promoter and Dr. Darwati, SH.MH, as Ko promoter.

Background problem: Village development is an effort to improve the quality of life and life for the greatest welfare of the village community, where village development is carried out by the village government. The Village Government consists of the Village Head, Village Devices and the Village Consultative Body (BPD). The chief as leader in the village administration arrangement had a very direct role in the well-being of the village community, The problem examined in this dissertation is 1. How to maximize the role of the Village Chief in order to realize rural development that will prosper the village community? 2. To what extent is the role of the Village Chief in the effort to increase the development of the Leuwikaret Village in Klapanunggal District? 3. What is the comparative reflection of the role of the Village Head of Leuwikaret Village in Klapanunggal District before and after the Law Number 6 Year 2014 concerning Villages?

This study uses normative legal research methods with normative empirical approaches, and in analyzing not only normatively-qualitatively, but must first make efforts to determine the criteria for identification, classification and systematization and arrive at efforts to find the law whether in the form of legal interpretation or construction law to give birth to a legal argument.

The results showed that first, efforts to maximize the role of the village head were by institutional synchronization between the village head, village apparatus, and the village consultative body in order to formulate village regulations that could prosper the village community, so that the village head's managerial function was needed which is directly proportional to the level of education for the Village Head as a benchmark for determining the success of village administration. Secondly, the role of the Village Head in efforts to improve Leuwikaret Village Development is in formulating and compiling Village RPJM and Village RKP which is carried out by involving all elements of the village, so that it can achieve an increase in Rural Development especially in Leuwikaret Village, West Java, according to the Writer The Village Head can apply the DISCUSS formula (Development, Involve, Socialize, Caster, Utilize, Sensitive). Third, on the enactment of Law Number 6 Year 2014 concerning Villages, it is very clear that the Village Head has an important role as the leader in implementing village development compared to the previous law.
